The Greatest Sale of "Odd Lots" Ever Held.

Stock taking is now but a few days off. Managers of every department have received imperative orders to reduce their stock to its lowest possible point before that event. Therefore, they have gathered everything in the way of remnants, broken sizes, incomplete assortments and lines that will be discontinued, and have marked prices on them utterly disregarding the cost or value. They MUST GO-that's the point we have in view, and these are the prices that will accomplish it. The reductions will not prevent you having your purchases "charged" if you wish to.

The Ball Tomorrow Night-

Dinners were the feature of last night's nospitality, as, indeed, they are of every night this season. There are invitations out now for the closing date of the season February 27, and a prominent hostess last week was obliged after accepting for the coming Friday to decline four other invitations to dinner the same evening. The dinner hostesses last night, whose guests met later at the German embassy dance, were Secretary and Mrs. Hay, Senator and Mrs. Lodge, Mr. and Mrs. Alex. Legare, Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Legare, Mr. and Mrs. Blair Lee. Mr. and Mrs. Chandler Hale and Mr. and Mrs. Henry May. Mrs. Hay received the company later at the embassy, where the guests were charmingly entertained at a
